Practice Groups

Trusts, Estates + Elder Law

Shervaun is an Associate in the Firm's Trusts, Estates, and Elder Law group. Joining the Firm in August 2021 as a temporary paralegal in the firm's litigation group, her dedication and passion for the legal profession quickly stood out, leading her to a full-time position.

As she continued to excel, Shervaun transitioned into the role of a law clerk at the firm, where she honed her skills and deepened her understanding of our practice areas. Shervaun is a graduate of the Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University where she received numerous honors, including the Pace Law Opportunitas Grant and consistent Dean's List recognition. She also demonstrated her dedication to legal associations and activities as a Quarter Finalist in the 1L Moot Court Competition.

Drawing from her prior role at DeAngelis & Hafiz in Mount Vernon, NY, Shervaun has honed her legal skills and gained invaluable experience that enriches her current role at the Firm.
