Trusts, Estates + Elder Law

Deborah is an Associate in the Firm's Trusts, Estates, and Elder Law group, dedicated to providing clients with personalized attention and sophisticated service tailored to their needs and wishes. Her mission is to guide clients through Estate Planning, Trusts and Estate Administration, sophisticated Tax Planning, and Charitable Gift Planning, with expertise and compassion.

Deborah has extensive experience as a trust and estate administration attorney, handling various aspects such as preparing estate tax returns and assisting executors and other fiduciaries in managing estate assets and liabilities. She also has a background in finance, allowing her to help clients make informed decisions about their estate plans and overall financial well-being.

Deborah is an active member of the Westchester Women's Bar Association and sits on the Board of the Westchester Women's Bar Association Foundation.
