

Kempshall C. McAndrew

kmcandrew@cuddyfeder.com | 914-761-1300

Practice Groups

Litigation

Kempshall is an associate in the firm's Litigation group. He deals with all aspects of litigation practice – from the initial pleadings to appellate work. Kempshall graduated from Brooklyn Law School (cum laude) in 2014. While in law school, he was a Dennis J. Block fellow, an editor of the Brooklyn Journal of International Law, and was an Intern in the Real Estate Transactional Clinic. In 2012, he was awarded the Global Justice Fellowship and worked as an intern at a general practice firm in New Delhi, India.

Prior to becoming an attorney, Kempshall was the Admissions & Membership Development Manager at the Harvard Club of New York.

Education

- Brooklyn Law School, J.D., cum laude
- Fordham University, B.A.

Admissions/Courts

- New York
- S. District Court for the Southern District of New York

Awards + Recognitions

- Legal Services of the Hudson Valley Pro Bono Award, 2022
- New York City Bar Association
- New York State Bar Association

Community Service

- Board member of the Southbury Land Trust
- Legal Services of the Hudson Valley Pro Bono Housing Project Volunteer