Litigation

Josh is a Partner of the Firm and Chairman of the Litigation Group. His commercial litigation practice is diverse, with varied experience in all areas of real estate litigation, title and easement matters, contract and corporate disputes, commercial landlord-tenant proceedings, employment-related issues and appellate advocacy.

Josh has successfully represented and counseled a broad array of clients, ranging from title insurance companies and very large businesses to small family-run companies and individuals on complex matters involving real estate disputes, property rights and title matters, contract and employment issues, corporate conflicts, and zoning, easement and land use litigations. He has appeared before local, state and federal courts, at both the trial and appellate levels.
