

Affordable Housing Options As You Age

Friday, October 11 at 1:00—2:30 PM

This workshop will present a review of home and community based housing options. These include traditional options such as assisted living, HUD subsidized housing and continuing care retirement communities. In addition, innovative options which assist seniors to remain in their own home will also be discussed. Neil Rimsky, an Elder Care attorney, will present this program.

Registration is recommended to Shelley Glick at sglick@wlsmail.org or call the library at 914-941-7072.
